

MARCHING FOR AMERICA

SELMA TO MONTGOMERY... The Struggle Continues

In 1965, the American South was a battlefield. The wealthy elite sought to block rights and a voice in society for a segment of the population. Nowhere was this battle uglier than in Alabama over the basic right to vote.

Today, 47 years later, many states have launched an all-out coordinated assault on our democracy by attacking workers' rights, voting rights, public education and comprehensive immigration reform.

In 1965, the Selma to Montgomery March made history and changed America. In 2012, we march again... for the 99%. History will be on our side.
