IAM Leadership Election Report

IAM Members Elect New National Leaders

IAM members in the United States and Canada have reelected national leaders to four-year terms commencing on July 1, 2005.

The IAM Constitution requires members to nominate their national officers every four years at the last (or only) regular local lodge meeting during the month of January.

Members in more than 570 local lodges participated in this quadrennial process to nominate candidates for the office of International President, General Secretary-Treasurer, seven General Vice Presidents, five members of the Committee on Law, three delegates to the AFL-CIO and one delegate to the Canadian Labour Congress.

To be officially nominated under the provisions of the IAM Constitution, a candidate for office must receive endorsements from at least 25 Local Lodges (20 for the General Vice President nominated by Local Lodges in Canada). The exact number of candidates for each office received the required endorsements thus eliminating the need for an election that would have been held during the month of April.

Officers nominated and elected are:

International President: R. Thomas Buffenbarger, Local Lodge 912, reelected.

General Secretary-Treasurer: Warren L. Mart, Local Lodge 153, elected after he was appointed General Secretary-Treasurer in 2003.

General Vice Presidents: Lee Pearson, Local Lodge 946; Dave Ritchie, Local Lodge 235; Robert V. Thayer, Local Lodge 147; Robert Roach, Jr., Local Lodge 1445; Lynn D. Tucker, Jr., Local Lodge 1838; Robert Martinez, Jr., Local Lodge 776A and James E. Brown, Local Lodge 41. Pearson, Ritchie, Thayer and Roach were reelected as General Vice Presidents. Tucker, Martinez and Brown were nominated and elected for the first time after being appointed General Vice Presidents in 2003.

Members of the Committee on Law: Incumbents Philip Zannella, Jr., Local Lodge 1363 and Jean Leo Cote, Local Lodge 712 are joined by newly elected members Mark Blondin, Local Lodge 751, who was appointed in 2001; Roger Poole, Local Lodge 313, who was appointed in 2003 and Randy Canale, Local Lodge 1776.

Delegates to the AFL-CIO: Incumbents James Conigliaro, Local Lodge 447; Shelly Kessler, Local Lodge 1414 and S.E. Cobbin, Local Lodge 517, were reelected.

Delegate to the Canadian Labour Council: Incumbent Angela Schira, Local 764, was reelected.

This special edition of the IAM Journal reports the full local-by-local tabulation of nominations received for each office. It also introduces your new Executive Council with biographical sketches of each officer.

INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT

R. THOMAS BUFFENBARGER

R. Thomas Buffenbarger is the 13th International President in the IAM's 116-year history. He was first elected International President in 1997.

The son of an IAM member, Tom Buffenbarger assumed his first IAM leadership post in 1970, at age 20, when he was elected Shop Steward of his apprenticeship group at General Electric Jet Engines, IAM Local Lodge 912, Evendale, Ohio.

He was elected Business Representative for IAM District 34, Cincinnati, OH in 1977. In 1980 he became an IAM Special Representative and in 1983 became Administrative Assistant to the General Vice President for the Great Lakes Territory.

Buffenbarger came to IAM Headquarters in December 1986 in the Organizing Department. In January 1988 he was appointed Executive Assistant to the International President. Buffenbarger became General Vice President at Headquarters in 1991, functioning as chief of staff of all Headquarters operations, including the William W. Winpisinger Education and Technology Center.

As International President, Buffenbarger is a member of the AFL-CIO Executive Council and serves on the International Metalworkers Federation's Executive Committee as president of its Aerospace Department.

Tom and his wife, Linda, have two children, Amy and Andrew.

GENERAL SECRETARY-TREASURER

Warren L. Mart has served as the IAM General Secretary-Treasurer since 2003. As General Secretary-Treasurer he is responsible for directing the finances of the International Union.

Mart first joined the IAM in 1966, as a member of Local Lodge 1900, when he hired on as a welder at Arkla Air Conditioning, Evansville, Indiana. He served the local as an IAM Shop Steward and as President, then later transferred to Local Lodge 1955 which became Local Lodge 2186 and then Local Lodge 153.

In 1980, he was elected Directing Business Representative of IAM District Lodge 153, Evansville, Indiana. In that capacity, Mart also served on the Mayor's Labor Advisory Board; the United Way of Southwestern Indiana and the Evansville Leadership Board. In 1988, Mart was elected as a Vice President of the Indiana State AFL-CIO. He also served as Vice President of the Southern Indiana Central Labor Council, and Secretary-Treasurer and President of the Indiana State Council of Machinists.

Mart was appointed as a Special Representative in 1987, and as a Grand Lodge Representative in 1989. His assignments included: servicing and organizing members and handling national coordinated bargaining with the Square D Company and with Rockwell. He was elected as a General Vice President in 1997 and assigned to direct IAM programs and activities in the union's Eastern Territory, headquartered in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mart and his wife, Karen, have one daughter, Tracey and one grandson, Kaleb.

GENERAL VICE PRESIDENT

LEE PEARSON

Lee Pearson has served as the IAM General Vice President assigned to the Western Territory since 1992. The Western Territory, headquartered in Folsom, California, includes Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington and Wyoming.

Pearson is a native Californian, born and raised in San Diego, California. An IAM member since 1966, he was active in his Local Lodge and served in many appointed and elected capacities, including the negotiating committee, chief steward, delegate to the San Diego District, and subsequently, as Vice President and Business Representative.

Pearson was appointed to the IAM's national field staff as a Special Representative in 1981 and as a Grand Lodge Representative in 1986. In 1991, he served as the Administrative Assistant for the Western Territory. He was appointed as General Vice President by the IAM's Executive Council in 1992, elected in that position in 1993 and reelected in 1997 and 2001.

Pearson's work in the IAM has given him a broad base of experience in providing services for workers in the aerospace, electronics, machinery and manufacturing, trucking and mining industries. He was appointed the IAM's national aerospace coordinator for the Boeing Company and McDonnell Douglas. In addition to those aerospace giants, the list of companies that Pearson has worked with includes Greyhound, General Electric, Westinghouse, Hughes, International Harvester and General Dynamics.

Pearson currently serves as a board member of the following organizations: Board of Trustees, IAM National Pension Fund; Board of Directors, Guide Dogs of America; Board of Directors, Delta Dental Plan of California, and Vice President of the California Labor Federation. Pearson is now a member of Local Lodge 946.

Pearson is married and has two children and four grandchildren.

GENERAL VICE PRESIDENT

DAVE RITCHIE

Dave Ritchie has served as the IAM General Vice President for Canada since 1995. Ritchie coordinates the administration of services for some 50,000 Canadian IAM members and leads the IAM's legislative fight and organizing campaigns in all of the Canadian provinces which include: Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Newfoundland-Labrador, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Prince Edward Island, Quebec and Saskatchewan as well as the Yukon and Northwest Territories.

As the senior officer of the IAM in Canada he serves as a Vice President on the Executive Council of the Canadian Labour Congress. He is also the Co-Chair of the IAM Labour Management Pension Fund.

Ritchie, former Directing Business Representative (DBR) Toronto District 78, was reelected Canadian Vice President in April 1997 for a four-year term and again in April 2001. He had served in the office since December 1995 when he was appointed by the Union's International Executive Board to fill the unexpired term of the incumbent.

As District 78 DBR from 1986 to 1995, Ritchie administered the activities of one of the largest IAM districts in Canada. District 78 members are employed in manufacturing and office work.

Elected Business Representative in October 1978, he performed a wide variety of duties including Vice President and President of the District. He was also a founding member of the Canadian Conference of Machinists and he was Vice President of the Ontario Provincial Council of Machinists.

Ritchie joined Toronto IAM Local Lodge 1755 in 1973 after being hired by Sangamo Electric where he worked as an electric meter repairman. He is now a member of Local Lodge 235 following its merger with Local Lodge 1755 in January 1995. On joining the IAM, he immediately became active in the union and held numerous positions at the local level. They included Shop Steward, Chief Steward, Shop Committee Chairperson, Vice President and Negotiating Committee Chairperson.

Ritchie is the past Chairperson of the Ontario Newspaper Council of Unions. His interest in apprenticeship programs led him to membership on the Ontario Premier's Council for Apprenticeships. He also served as an executive board member for Electronic Sectoral Skills Ontario and the position of Co-Chair of the Apprenticeship Committee Sectoral Skills.

GENERAL VICE PRESIDENT

ROBERT V. THAYER

Robert Thayer has served as the IAM General Vice President assigned to IAM Headquarters since 1997. As Headquarters General Vice President, Thayer is the chief of staff of all IAM Headquarters operations including the William W. Winpisinger Education and Technology Center; has jurisdiction for Woodworkers and Government Employees and chairs the Aerospace Conference.

Thayer was initiated into IAM Local Lodge 1142 in 1965, as an electronic assembler and tester at the Brown & Sharpe Co., Rhode Island. He was elected Shop Steward in 1966, Local Lodge Vice President in 1970 and served as President from 1973 through 1978. He is now a member of Local Lodge 147. Thayer served on the Advisory Committee of Rhode Island State Unemployment Compensation Commission; the Board of Incorporators of the Rhode Island Group Health Association; the Commission to Study Mandating Third-Party Coverage of Alcoholism Treatment; the Board of Directors for the United Way of Southeastern New England, and was appointed by Senator Edward Kennedy as a labor representative to the GATT negotiations in Geneva, Switzerland.

In 1978, Thayer was elected as a Business Representative for District Lodge 64, Providence, RI, a position he held until 1989, when he was appointed as an IAM Special Representative. He became a Grand Lodge Representative in 1990. His responsibilities included servicing IAM District 91; serving as a member of the International Aerospace Coordinated Bargaining Committee and as the IAM's Overall Coordinator for the Pratt & Whitney and Hamilton Standard divisions of United Technologies Corporation.

In 1994, Thayer was assigned to the IAM Eastern Territory office. His responsibilities included: regional coordinator of organizing and automotive; handling jurisdictional disputes and serving as a member of the IAM National Pension Fund's Education and Promotion Committee.

Thayer and his wife, Marion, have three sons, four granddaughters and two grandsons.

GENERAL VICE PRESIDENT

ROBERT ROACH, JR.

Robert Roach, Jr. has served as the IAM General Vice President assigned to Transportation since 1999. The Transportation Department operates from IAM Headquarters and it administers contracts in the railroad and air transport sectors in the United States.

Robert Roach, Jr. started in the IAM in 1975 as a Ramp Serviceman for TWA and a member of Local Lodge 1056 in New York. Soon after, he transferred to Local Lodge 1445 in Newark, NJ. He was elected as a Shop Steward in 1976 and served as Grievance Committee Chairman from 1979 through 1992.

Roach held other offices in Local Lodge 1445, including Trustee, Vice President and President.

In 1984, he was elected District Lodge 142 Trustee and also served as Coordinator for the District's Human Rights Committee. Roach became a District 142 General Chairman in 1992.

In 1994, Roach was appointed Transportation Department Special Representative and a Grand Lodge Representative in 1996. In 1997, he was appointed by International President George J. Kourpias to be a Trustee of the IAM/TWA Annuity Pension Plan.

On June 1, 1999, Roach became General Vice President of the Transportation Department. He is also a member of the Executive Committee of the AFL-CIO's Transportation Trades Department, and the International Transport Workers' Federation Executive Board and Management Committees.

Roach earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Labor and Management Relations at the Empire State Labor College and is a graduate of the Labor Studies program at the Cornell School of Labor.

GENERAL VICE PRESIDENT

LYNN D. TUCKER, JR.

Lynn D. Tucker, Jr. has served as the IAM General Vice President assigned to the Eastern Territory since 2003. The Eastern Territory includes the District of Columbia and fourteen states: Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, Maryland, Maine, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, West Virginia, and Vermont.

Tucker began his career with the Machinists Union in 1976 working for Miller Brewery, in Fulton, New York. He has held a variety of elected offices in the IAM including Shop Steward, Senior Steward, Local Lodge Vice President, President and Vice President of the New York State Council of Machinists.

Tucker was active and served in the Oswego, New York Labor Council and the Greater Syracuse, New York Labor Council. He also served as Director of the United Way in Fulton, New York, and was President of the Industrial Relations Research Association, Central New York Chapter, Syracuse, New York, and was an active member of the Coalition of Labor Union Women (CLUW) and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

In 1986, Tucker was elected to serve as Business Representative in District Lodge 137, Watertown, New York. Then in 1989, he was appointed Special Representative for the Eastern Territory and in 1991 advanced to the position of Grand Lodge Representative. In 1992, then General Vice President George J. Poulin selected Representative Tucker to serve as his Administrative Assistant. After Vice President Poulin's retirement in 1997, newly elected General Vice President Warren Mart selected him to continue as the Administrative Assistant of the Eastern Territory. Tucker became General Vice President for the Eastern Territory in 2003.

Tucker and his wife Diane live in West Chester, Ohio.

GENERAL VICE PRESIDENT

ROBERT MARTINEZ, JR.

Robert Martinez, Jr. has served as the IAM General Vice President assigned to the Southern Territory since 2003. The Southern Territory includes fourteen states: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Martinez joined the IAM as an Aircraft Assembler in 1980 with Local Lodge 776A, Aeronautical Industrial District Lodge 776, in Fort Worth, Texas. He served on many committees and in various positions with his local lodge throughout his employment at Lockheed Martin Aeronautics Fort Worth Division.

In 1994, Martinez was assigned to the International Chemical Workers Union Center for Worker Safety and Health Education in Cincinnati, Ohio to serve as the liaison to this Federal Consortium of Education. He was assigned in 1995 to serve in the Safety and Health Department. He also served as a Project Coordinator for the Re-Employment and Safety Training (IAM CREST) and for the Center for Administering Rehabilitation and Employment Services (IAM CARES).

In 1999, with the addition of the Territorial Education Representatives, Martinez was assigned by International President Tom Buffenbarger to serve as the Education Representative of the Southern Territory on General Vice President George Hooper's Staff in Dallas, Texas.

In April 2002, he was reassigned as a Special Representative and served in that capacity until assuming the office of General Vice President of the Southern Territory in July 2003.

Martinez currently serves on the Board of Directors for Guide Dogs of America, the National Executive Board of the Labor Council for Latin American Advancement and the Texas Labor Management Conference.

Martinez is married to Kimberly Ann, and has two daughters, Morgan Paige and Alexis Nicole and one son, Robert "Sonny" Martinez, III.

GENERAL VICE PRESIDENT

JAMES E. BROWN

James E. Brown has served as the IAM General Vice President assigned to the Midwest Territory since 2003. The Midwest Territory includes nine states: Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

Brown has been an IAM member since his initiation in District 9's Progressive Lodge 41 on September 20, 1963. He began his career as an Apprentice Machinist at Continental Can Company in St. Louis, Missouri where he rose through the ranks to Journeyman, Shop Steward, and Chief Shop Steward before joining the staff of District 9 as a Business Representative in July of 1978.

He has also served as Delegate to District Lodge 9; served on the Missouri State Council of Machinists as a Delegate, Secretary-Treasurer and President and Vice President of the Midwest States Conference of Machinists. Brown was also a delegate to the Missouri AFL-CIO and a member of its Executive Board. He served as Chairman of the District 9 Machinists and Tool & Die Maker Joint Apprenticeship Committee and since 1985 has been the President of the International Union's National Tool & Die Conference.

In March of 1989, he was elected as District Lodge 9 Assistant Directing Business Representative, and subsequently became the Directing Business Representative in January 1996. Brown has been a Delegate to every Grand Lodge Convention since 1980. In November of 1995 he was elected to the Committee on Law where he served during the 1996 and 2000 Grand Lodge Conventions.

After seven years as Director of District 9 in St. Louis, Brown accepted the position of Administrative Assistant to the General Vice President Midwest Territory, Alex M. Bay. In 2003, Brown succeeded Bay as General Vice President of the Midwest Territory.

Brown and his wife Sheila have two sons.
