

The Labor Council for Latin American Advancement, LCLAA, is the home of the Latino Labor Movement. LCLAA is a national Latino organization representing the interest of over 1.7 million Latino trade unionists throughout the country and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

LCLAA was founded in 1973 and is America's premier national organization for Latino workers and their families. LCLAA advocates for the rights of all workers seeking justice in the workplace and their communities. LCLAA is a constituency group representing Latino workers from the AFL-CIO and Change to Win Federation.

LCLAA members are dedicated to improving the quality of life for Latino working families. We all have the responsibility to get involved in the effort to defend our civil, social, economic and political rights.

LCLAA is not just for union members, but for all people who envision a better quality of life, a just workplace, and who demand respect and dignity for all working people.
