

Wouldn't it be nice to know there's one place to go to find information about all of your Railroad benefit needs, regardless of which benefit administrator provides your coverage?

ONE STOP FOR YOUR BENEFIT NEEDS

Welcome to the redesigned Railroad Information Depot, your one stop for your benefit needs!

If you're already familiar with the Railroad Information Depot, you'll find that the redesigned site has all that was previously there, and more.

Here's a brief snapshot of things you can find at "the Depot".

- The Railroad Information Center contains "Alerts and Important Dates" (such as Open Enrollment, etc.), "Current Topics of Interest and News" (with information about current health issues) and "Summary Plan Descriptions" (for easy reference to your Plan booklets).
- Information from Medical, Behavioral Health & Substance Abuse, Dental, Life, Vision, Prescriptions and Supplemental Sickness benefit administrators can be accessed through the Railroad Information Depot.
- With just a couple of clicks, you'll be able to search for network providers, locate helpful tools and educational materials, find contact information for your particular concern and locate any forms needed to address your benefit needs.
- A retirement section is available where you can learn about your coverage options, gain access to required forms, and locate information and helpful checklists related to retirement.
- And you can address enrollment related questions, find out whom to call and access a library of forms that you may need along the way.

Visit the Railroad Information Depot today at www.rrinfodepot.com and save it as a favorite for ready reference.

Along the journey of life, arrive wiser, arrive healthier, arrive happier!
