Dear Sisters and Brothers of British Airways Mixed Fleet Cabin Crew:

On behalf of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers (IAM), please allow me to express our boundless solidarity with the striking Mixed Fleet Cabin Crew of British Airways, members of Unite the Union, UK, who have been the victims of inferior pay and substandard conditions of employment.

As the largest airline union in the United States, we know the challenges you are facing and the difficult circumstances you are working under. Only by supporting each other can our unions guarantee that employers will respect such basic standards as fair pay and favorable terms of employment.

We support your decision to take action against the inequities British Airways created and will work with you to ensure that you prevail.

In the spirit of international solidarity, we send our unconditional support and wishes for victory to our sisters and brothers in Unite.

In Solidarity,

Sito Pantoja

General Vice President
