Re: 2023 Retiree's Education & Strategy
Program Schedule and Enrollment

To: Directing Business Reps, Local Lodge Presidents and Recording Secretaries in the United States and Canada, and TCU-IAM

Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Siblings:

This is the call for the Retiree's Education & Strategy Program to be held April 2 - 7, 2023, at the William W. Winpisinger Education and Technology Center in Hollywood, Maryland. Offered by the Retirees and Membership Assistance Department, this course includes resources and education for retired and nearly retired members on topics impacting their lives: organizing and maintaining Retirees Clubs; legislative and political strategies; Social Security and Medicare programs; create Retiree Club action plan; Alliance for Retired Americans activities; and retired member organizing volunteers.

The Winpisinger Center must protect the health and safety of all participants who attend and staff who work at the facility. Participants (and their guests) attending in-person programs at the Winpisinger Center must be fully vaccinated at least two weeks before the program starts and also provide proof of vaccination prior to attendance. Please check the Winpisinger Center website for the most up-to-date COVID protocols.

Included in this call letter is the IAM policy letter that details tuition, transportation, and curriculum. Use the link below to register members for this program.

Registration must be submitted by February 6, 2023. If you should have any questions about this program, please contact the Retirees and Membership Assistance Department at (301) 967-4500.

Thank you for your support of this valuable program for our members. With every best wish, I remain in solidarity,

Fraternally yours,
